ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS AT LAW

“We are a compassionate law firm for you and your family’s legal needs.”

Few attorneys take the time and have the patience required to truly meet the needs of the clients that beseech their aid. Stephanie Townsend Allala, Jessica Kludt and Jennifer Coulter of Stephanie Townsend Allala and Associates defy this standard by offering the people of El Paso a compassionate, for-you-and-your-family, full service law firm that has your best interest at heart. Stephanie, her daughter Jessica, and their partner Jennifer specialize in elderly and Medicaid law, helping the elderly and critically ill supplement their cost of medical and nursing care. “We help those who have difficulties attaining the Medicaid benefits they need — those who have had their benefits denied in the past,” explained Stephanie. “Many of these families have worked 50 to 60 years, never asking the government for anything. The least we can do is provide them with the benefits they deserve.”

Stephanie, the owner and lead partner of the firm is a graduate of UTEP with a degree in Mass Communications and a graduate of The University of Texas School of Law. Over the years she has served on a myriad of boards and committees in the city. In 2003, she decided to change her career and began her law practice and for the past 11 years Stephanie, later joined by her daughter Jessica, a graduate of UT Austin with bachelors degree in Biology/Pre-Med and a law degree from the University of Texas School of Law, and Jennifer, a graduate of Wayland Baptist University with a Psychology degree and a law degree from The University of Texas School of Law, have worked tirelessly to provide El Pasoans with quality legal council. “We have an impressive win rate because we know the rules and we know how to follow them for the betterment of our clients,” Stephanie said. “Our clients trust us. We are truly honest and we are changing our clients’ lives for the better.”
